2011 Papa Ali'i Song Contest Information
Friday, October 14, 2011

This year Moku 'o Hawai'i has selected "Waikiki Hula" as this year's contest song. It was an appropriate song selection as it honors Prince Kuhio's Waikiki home – Pualeilani.

In addition to the contest song, we invite all participating Moku to share a second selection (or medley) of their choice to honor their specific Moku. In staying with the theme of Prince Kuhio and/or songs written for homes, we encourage songs written for:

1. Homestead areas
2. Beloved / famous homes
3. Honored people / places

These songs should be written about places / people from within your Moku boundaries.

Waikîkî Hula – Traditional

Source: www.huapala.org

This song was written for Pualeilani, the Waikiki home of Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalaniana'ole. It was given to Helen Ayat by her mother, a lady-in-waiting to Princess Kahanu, wife of Prince Kuhio.

He aloha `ia no a`o Waikîkî, eâ
Ka nehe o ke kai hâwanawana

Beloved is Waikiki
The rustling of the whispering sea

Pa iho ka makani lawa mâlie, eâ
Ke `ala onaona o ka lîpoa

The wind blows carrying softly
The sweet fragrance of seaweed

Kaulana kou inoa i nâ malihini, eâ
Ka`apuni kou nani puni ka honua

Your name is famous to visitors,
All your beauty known around the world

Huli aku nânâ ia Kaimana Hila, eâ
`Ike i ka nani a`o Honolulu

Turn and look at Diamond Head
See the beauty of Honolulu

Ha`ina `ia mai ana ka puana, eâ
He aloha `ia no a`o Waikîkî

The story is told
Beloved is Waikiki
